GEORGE HIGHT EDGE TOOL MAKER

George , eldest child of George & Eunice Hight, born in Berwick Maine, May 6,1765 and died in Scarborough. He was a Blacksmith residing in Berwick until 1780 and thereafter in Scarboro. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Col. Humphrey Pike of Saco.She died Nov.14 1840 age 68.

CHILDREN

Betsey; George Humphrey; Amos Chase;Mary Benjamin Pike;William T(DIED YOUNG);Eunice Hill;William Temple and Frances Caroline.

Art Gaffar

Maine Charitable Mechanic Association.com
mcma-art.blogspot.com

MAINE-LY TOOLS.COM
Researching Maine Tool Makers of the 1800's

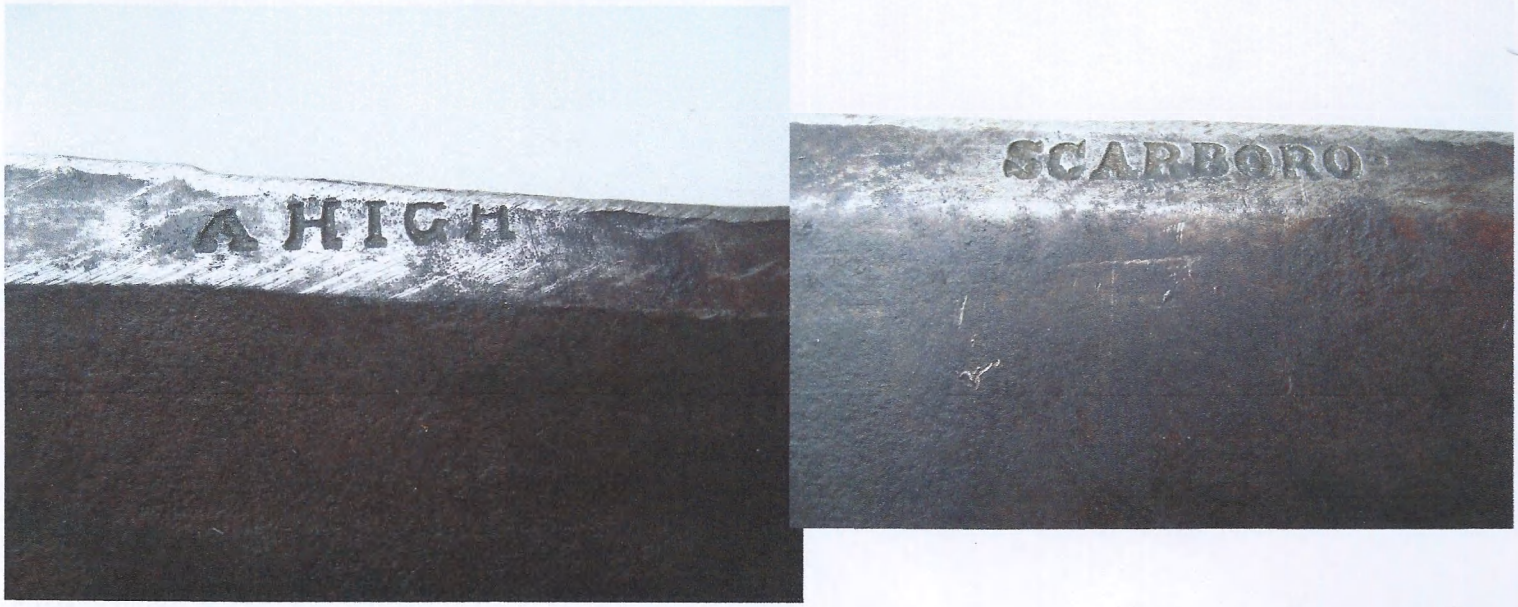
32 Cormier Rd.
South Portland, ME 04106
artgaff@gmail.com

home # 207-767-3721
cell # 207-232-2292

GEORGE HIGHT EDGE TOOL MAKER

AMOS CHASE HIGHT

Son of George & Elizabeth Hight, born Oct 15,1797 and died April 30, 1863, lived in Scarborough, he married Eliza Miliken, Dec.2,1830 at age 33
Children-George F; Frances C.;Horatio;George:Leroy and Elizabeth
1840 -CENSUS-Scarborough
1850-census-Scarborough age 52- edge tool maker
1860-census-Scarborough-age 62 -blacksmith
1863-AMOS died,April 30th



A HIGH
SCARBORO·

GEORGE HIGHT EDGE TOOL MAKER

GEORGE HIGHT-GORHAM -BLACKSMITH

Amos's older brother George Humphrey, born in 1792 in Scarborough and I assume he learned his trade with his brother from his father George around 1810-1815 in Scarboro.
1815-George moves from Scarboro to Gorham
1830-census-Gorham
1840-census-Gorham
1850-census-Gorham-blacksmith-age 58
1859-MOVES TO Casleton VT.

compiled by Art Gaffar, 2011, So.Port. Me.