CLASS ODE

by Pamela Munger and Lisa Lefevre

Tune: Ben

Well, the end is quickly drawing near,
Yes, it is again that time of year.
It's so sad to say good-bye,
To leave you all behind,
Our school where we have grown,
But now it's time to go.

We are going our own sep'rate ways
We do not know what may fill our days.
Time, it means so much right now,
Why could it not have last,
The years have gone so fast.
But now it's time to go.

The time has come
When we must say,
Good-bye to you
We're sad to go.

The time has come
When we must say,
Good-bye to you
We're sad to go.

We don't know what is come of us;
What the future has laid out for us.
It won't be as it has been;
We'll have to start again;
Meet people in hopes to be
Good friends like you and me.

Chorus:

(Like you) and me.
(Like you) and me.

ALMA MATER

'Round the royal purple standard
 the sons of Deering throng;
 'Neath the folds with hues of heaven
 Fair Portland sons belong
 But no colors how'er cherished
 Gleam forth with clearer light
 Than the banner of old Scarborough
 With its glorious red and white. Rah! Rah!

Red for courage, nerve, and prowess,
 White for purpose pure and true,
 Red and white for all that's noblest,
 Dear Scarborough, in you.
 Should defeat before us threaten,
 We will never yield the fight
 While above us floats the banner
 Of our dear Old Red and White, Rah! Rah!
