CLASS SONG.

Three years have passed,
And we to-night must bid you all adieu:
To teachers, classmates, one and all,
We say farewell to you.
Though varied be the paths we tread,
However hard we strive,
We never, never can forget
The class of ninety-five.

Tonight the time has come at last,
When friendship's chain must sever,
For we've been friends in days that's past,
And friends we'll be forever.
When climbing up the stairs of fame,
And at the top arrive,
With love and reverence we'll recall
The class of ninety-five.

Oh may the lessons we have learned,
As years draw on, become
True Wisdom's crown for each and all,
As through the world we roam.
And now our school-time days are o'er
And gone their happy spell,
May we all meet in Heaven above
No more to say farewell.

Class Ode

Written by Ina Maude Sampson

Tune of "Love's Old Sweet Song"

We now have met, dear classmates, but to part,
Grief swells unbidden in each aching heart,
Four years together, trials we have borne,
Garnered the precious moments of life's morn,
Guided in wisdom's path by patient care,
Now all earth's joys and sorrows we must share.

Chorus

Our dear Alma Mater, we will cherish you,
When life's darkest moments din the sunny blue,
When in pathswide-parted, long will seem the day,
Then to us in mem'ry, dear visions waken,
Waken of this day.

With saddened hearts we bid classmates farewell,
Mem'ry enshrines the things we cannot tell,
Love's tie shall last until we meet again,
Then we'll remember days of Auld Lang Syne.
Fair be the path, or dimmed with ill and woe,
Cheered we will be by dreams of long ago.

Chorus

TUNE: "When Day is Done"

Four years have gone. The time has come
To say good-bye.
Our hopes and fears, those happy years
Will never die.
Our schoolmates, our classmates, the school we hold so dear,
We'll treasure and cherish thruout the span of all the years.

Now as we go to face the world,
A world of pain,
We pledge our strength 'till freedom's sun
Shall shine again,
And when the world has peace once more,
And hearts are high,
We'll pledge anew our love,
Dear Scarborough High.

Goodbye, dear friends of our school days,
The years may draw us apart,
But we will always with thoughts so true
Keep the memory of school in our hearts.

Fare-thee-well!

Fare-thee-well!

"Till the dawn breaks o'er the hill;
And to our classmates who left us
To serve under the Red, White and Blue,
We'll do our best to make good for you
As we bid a fare-well to our school.

Our Alma Mater we are leaving,
And whatever we all may do,
We'll think of our good times together here
As we start for our Worlds that are new.

Fare-thee-well!

Fare-thee-well!

Where we'll meet no one can tell;
And so, dear teachers and schoolmates
And friends that we've all made so true,
We'll say goodbye to our dear Scarborough High
When the dawn greets us over the hill.

For Scarboro High we'll keep so true
Dear memories of you;
Our names we'll try to glorify
For dear old Scarboro High.

The world unknown, we face alone
With courage that is strong;
Our destiny we know not now;

Tune: "Now is the Hour"

School days have come to an end;
Dear are the bonds we must sever.
Friends we have made through the years
Mean so much more now than ever.

Chorus

For now is the time when we must say good-by;
We'll treasure fondly days at Scarborough High.
Mem'ries of her and all we hold so dear,
Shall live with us in all our future years.

A fond farewell we must say
To the kind teachers of Scarborough.
Their lore and guidance so true,
We'll cherish always and follow.

Tune: Red Sails in the Sunset

Even though we cherish in our heart
Our days in Scarborough High,
Time swiftly leads us to depart;
At last we must say goodbye.

Starlit the path that we may tread
That leads to fortune or fame;
Along our way the white and red
Will ever recall thy name.

Throughout the years of peace or strife,
Though we are near or far,
Your influence shall guide our life,
Forever like a bright star.

Chorus

Before us the gateway lies open and wide,
Leading to fortune long dreamed of outside.
Years treasured and golden we'll store in our heart
Dear Scarborough High School before we depart;
Each hour is a jewel, each friendship of gold
Locked in our hearts safely, their memory ever we'll hold.
Though now we are parting, loyal we'll be,
O Scarborough High School, Forever to thee.

Written by RICHARD PLUMMER AND PATRICIA BRINKMAN

Tune: Let's Go To Church Next Sunday Morning

Swift as a dream the years have vanished,
Laden with sunshine and rain.
New portals open; new paths beckon,
And no turning backward again.
Knowledge with its shining wings to guide us,
Courage, hope, and friendship still to walk beside us;
Then through the years, what'er befall us,
We'll reach our haven at last.

Dear Scarborough High, 'tis time for parting,
We bid you loving farewell;
So long to friends and mem'ries cherished,
With sadness we sever their spell.
Through the years we'll travel o'er life's highways,
Near or far, we'll ne'er forget our happy schooldays,
Still think of us, your wand'ring children,
Goodbye to you, Scarborough High.

Tune: Londonderry Air

O Scarborough High! the school of friendships gay and true
We'll cherish e'er the days we spent with you
With loyal hearts tonight our hopes and dreams we share
Inspired by you our Alma Mater fair.
Within thy walls a friendly beacon shines
To guide our steps when other light declines
Thy courage too will guide us, through the blackest night
Thy honor keep our steps in paths of truth and right.
O red and white, you stand for purpose pure and true
For loyalty we add our band of blue—
Red, white, and blue to bind our hearts in country, God, and You.
To bind our hearts in country, God, and you.
O Scarborough High! we sing tonight of happy years
We sing of youth, the springtime of our lives
We sing Farewell—farewell we echo through our tears
Farewell to Scarborough High the springtime of our lives!

Tune of "Never"

Farewell to dear Scarboro High
Our paths must sever
You ask when men's lives will die
We tell you never.

Farewell to friendships so true
Like glowing embers
Though we may be far from you
We'll e'er remember.

School days may disappear
Like the wave's on a sea
But we will hold them dear
Ever cherished they'll be.

We'll miss each pal we have had,
Both old and new
This makes the parting more sad
They've been so true.

Now with tears in our eyes
We all know we must part
But 'till we meet again
You'll be close to our hearts.

The time is now drawing nigh
To part forever
We bid each pal fond goodbye
Forget you — "Never."

Tune — All of Me

I

Memories, oh what fond memories,
We all share while working together;
Days of work in our search for truth;
Happy days, golden with sparkling youth;
Spirits high, learning to live and abide;
Faithfully we've worked with each other;
Thanks to the past, our friendships will last.
Dear Scarborough, You've made us steadfast.

II

Scarborough High, our thoughts will meet in thee,
Now and then, as we recall memories;
Like a star, you shine on us tonight.
From afar, you'll guide us by your light.
As we go, ever we'll proudly show
That we know the lessons you taught us.
Fondly we sing, before we must part:
"Dear Scarborough, you're deep in each heart."

III

Tenderly, we say farewell to thee;
Loyally binding our hearts to thee;
O'er the years you'll hold a sacred place.
Through our tears, we ask your special grace;
As we part to find our destiny
In each heart we pledge our faith to thee.
In these fond halls we learned to be true,
Dear Scarborough, we all thank you.

Tune: We've Only Just Begun

We've only just begun — to live,
Bright dreams and promises
A tearful look and we're on our way.
We've only begun.
Before the adult world — we stand,
So many roads to choose
We'll start out walking; and learn to run.
And yet we've just begun.
Facing horizons that are new to us,
Watching the signs along the way,
And if we look back we can see ourselves,
Working together day by day — together —
And now graduation's come
We'll smile,
So much of life to live
There's so much here that we'll ne're forget.
And yes we've just begun
Sharing the news of life along the way,
Watching our friends from school grow up,
And when we look back we will understand,
How we were working for this day — together, together —
And now that school is done
We'll sigh
So much of life ahead
Dear Scarborough High we'll ne're forget
And yet we've just begun.

Tune: If We Try

Now's the time for us to think about our graduation.
Just the thought that we'll be free creates anticipation.
Won't you look our way once before we go
And our eyes will say what you want to know
Well we've been thinking about it day and night
And we don't know if things will work out right
But somehow we think that it just might
If we try

Lessons come and lessons go in circular rotation
But something yearns within to grow beyond our education
Won't you look our way once before we go
And our eyes will say what you want to know
Well right now we're standing deaf and blind
With so many questions on our mind
But who knows what it is that we might find
If we try.

We'll be walking a different direction from one we've ever met
We're looking forward instead of backward without any regret
Don't ask us to pledge our future, the future's not ours to give
Just give us your understanding and help us learn how to live
Now's the time for us to think about our graduation.
Won't you look our way once before you go
And our eyes will say what you want to know
Well we've been thinking about it day and night
And we don't know if things will work out right
But somehow we think that it just might
If we try.

| Scarborough we're leaving | Friendships are lasting |
| Sadly we'll miss you | Good times remembered |
| Future is dawning | Spirit undying, true friends we've found. |
| We've just begun. | So the first sunrise |
| Memories behind us | Lights our tomorrows |
| Memories we'll cherish | Shines on our new lives |
| Memories to guide us | Leading the way |
| On the new road. | Whatever we do, wherever we go |
| No matter what path each | Your light is guiding |
| Of us follows | All of our days. |
| Forever we'll be together bound. | |

AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood,
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for heroes proved
In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved,
And mercy more than life!
America! America!
May God thy gold refine
Till all success be nobleness,
And ev'ry gain divine!

O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years,
Thine alabaster cities gleam
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood,
From sea to shining sea!

Tune: Weekend in New England

Right now, we'll say good bye,
Soon 'twill seem years
We're leaving our Scarborough
We all hold so dear.
But thoughts of us leaving you,
Sometimes brings tears,
And tell us
After we leave you,
Where will we all go?
When will we meet again,
As we continue to grow.
Days at our Scarborough
All meant so much.
Memories we'll treasure
No one can touch.
We've started a story which now must go on.
And tell us
After we leave you,
Where will we all go?
When will we all meet again,
As we continue to grow.
We feel the change coming,
We really don't know,
We feel brave and anxious
We're ready to go.
Good bye, Scarborough High School . . .

Tune: Seasons in the Sun

Good-bye to you our trusted friends,
We've known each other since we were nine or ten.
Together we've climbed hills and trees,
Learned of love and A, B, C's,
Skinned our hearts and skinned our knees.

So long our friends, here's our Good-bye
While all the birds are singing in the sky.
Now that the spring is in the air,
Dreams and goals are everywhere,
Think of us for we'll be there.

We had joy, we had fun,
We had seasons in the sun,
But the hills that we climbed
Were just seasons out of time.

Good-bye to you our teachers here
You've helped us see the hope in spite of fear.
You've tried to teach us right from wrong,
Nights with homework seemed so long.
Wonder how we got along.

So long to you, here's our good-bye
While all the birds are singing in the sky.
Now that the spring is in the air
Dreams and goals are everywhere.
Think of us for we'll be there.

We had joy, we had fun,
We had seasons in the sun.
Now our studies are all done,
Our diplomas we have won.

Good-bye to you, dear S.H.S.
We'll leave you now to try to do our best,
And every time that we feel down
We know you'll always be around
To get our feet back on the ground.

Good-bye to you, we're glad to go
We leave you here to run old Scarborough.
Now that spring is in the air
Dreams and goals are everywhere,
Think of us, for we'll be there.

We had joy, we had fun,
We had seasons in the sun.
Dreams and goals are everywhere,
Think of us for we'll be there.

We'll have joy, we'll have fun,
We'll have seasons in the sun.
Dreams and goals are everywhere,
Wait for us, 'cause we'll be there.

Tune: This is the Time

We walked on the beach along that old hotel
They're tearing it down now, but it's just as well.
We haven't shown you everything that we can do
But stick by us SHS, we'll do fine by you.

This is the time to remember
'Cause it will not last forever
These are the days to hold on to
'Cause we won't although we'll want to
This is the time

But time is gonna change
You've given us the best of you
But now we need the rest of you

Did you know that before you came into our lives
Some kind of miracle that we survived
Someday we will all look back and have to laugh
We lived through a lifetime and the aftermath.

This is the time to remember
'Cause it will not last forever
These are the days to hold on to
'Cause we won't although we'll want to

This is the time
But time is gonna change
I know we gotta move somehow
But we don't want to lose you now.

Sometimes it's so easy to let a day slip on by
Without even seeing each other at all.
But this is the time you'll turn back to, and so will I
And those will be days you can never recall.
And so we may see each other now and then
Who knows if we'll ever be back here again
Ah, but holding you dear is like holding the summer sun.
I'm warm from the memory of days to come.

This is the time to remember
'Cause it will not last forever
These are the days to hold on to
'Cause we won't although we'll want to
This is the time
But time is gonna change
You've given us the best of you.
But now we need the rest of you.

ALMA MATER

'Round the royal purple standard
The sons of Deering throng;
'Neath the folds with hues of heaven
Fair Portland sons belong
But no colors how'er cherished
Gleam forth with clearer light
Than the banner of old Scarborough
With its glorious red and white. Rah! Rah!

Red for courage, nerve, and prowess,
White for purpose pure and true,
Red and White for all that's noblest,
Dear Scarborough, in you.
Should defeat before us threaten,
We will never yield the fight
While above us floats the banner
Of our dear Old Red and White. Rah! Rah!
